A WORD

Regarding Preparations for Easter.

So long as beautiful woman takes pride in her apparel; so long as art, genius and skill are devoted to beauty-work for women; so long as the charm of beauty shall endure, women and men who admire them will take supreme interest in spring dresses. First, because of the art and beauty expressed in the dresses themselves; second, because of their charm and becomingness to the women who wear them.

And This Week is An Important One in the calendar of spring and Easter preparation for tomorrow we present to public view, first a lavish display of the most charming models that the skillful and ingenious designers of the East have produced.

The development of fashion is a constantly progressive evolution beauty-ward. It seems fit to say now, as we have perhaps said before, that the present season's styles are more charming, more artistic, more beautiful than ever before, and the fact is abundantly illustrated by the ready-to-wear suits on exhibition tomorrow.

The public is invited to view the splendid opening display at

Kaufman,
Straus & Co.

12 and 14 West Main Street,

LEXINGTON, KY.

Does This Fit You?

An exchange prints the following true story:

"A subscriber once got a dun through the postoffice and it made him mad. He went to see the editor about it, and the editor showed him some of his own—one for paper, one for coal, others for wood, groceries, mill feed, flour, dry goods, milk, bread and several others."

"Now," said the patient editor, "I didn't get mad when these came, because I knew all I had to do was to ask several reliable men like you to come in and help out, and then I could settle all of them."

"When the subscriber saw how it was he relented and renewed."

"Moral—Never get vexed when asked to pay what you owe, for the other fellow may need the money."

A Giant.

Camille Hugo, who is said to be the tallest man alive, has arrived in New York from Paris, France. Hugo is eight feet two inches in height, weighs 502 pounds, has a chest measurement of 263 inches, is nearly four feet from one shoulder's end to the other, wears a shoe twenty-four inches in length and walks as erect as a French grenadier. He is several inches taller than Chang, the Chinese giant.

W. P. Dickinson, of Chicago, who was accused of embezzling from the Boone Valley Coal Company, of which he was an officer, has sued Hamilton Browne, a stockholder, for $10,000 damages.

From Abroad.

LETTER VI.

MALE, Feb. 23, 1903.

Dear Judge:—At the breakfast table as the ship careened starboard I saw through a porthole the cliff-bound shores of Malta, the largest of the Maltese group of islands. Yozo, another of the group, we passed last night without hearing any Sirene songs that enticed ancient travelers, and of whom Homer sang:

Malta is one vast solid rock 174 by 94 miles, covered by a very fertile soil, mostly by artificial means, much of it having been brought in ships from Palestine and the islands of the Mediterranean. It is nine square miles supporting the densest population on the globe—2,000 to the square mile. The people largely of Arabic origin, are industrious, frugal, cheerful and religious. Its history is lost in the impenetrable mists of antiquity. Egyptians, Phoenicians, Romans, Greeks, Vandals, Arabs, Crusaders, Knights of St. John, French and English have successively fought on the island. Since 1799 the English have had undisturbed possession. Perhaps it is now protected by the most elaborate fortifications on earth, manned constantly by 11,000 British troops, and the rendezvous of the mightiest navy that ever sailed the sea.

At hour before dropping anchor in the harbor of Valetta—the capital—we crossed the track of Paul's doomed ship. Upon landing, Dr. Buckner and I disengaged ourselves from the struggling mob of 400 tourists, hired a carriage and drove on a perfect road through a romantic country of terraced green gardens—called farms—9½ miles to St. Paul's Bay on the north-west corner of the island. There we took a rowboat and crossed the bay to the spot where stands a chapel and a monument surmounted by a colossal statue of Paul, erected on the spot where he landed from the wreck. The little chapel marks the spot where the kindly natives kindled the fire to warm the shivering strangers. Here Paul shook the viper from his unthrust hand, Read Acts, xxvii and xxviii.

In a few days not an invalid was found on the island, for every one from the father of Publius to the smallest child, had felt the healing touch of the great Apostle. From that time until this hour, Paul's Master has been Lord of the islanders. This visit of Paul and the deeds of the heroic knights of Malta have given its history a deathless interest.

The Knights: About 1043 A.D., some Maltese Caravans obtained permission to build in Jerusalem a house for Christian pilgrims, to which, afterwards they added a hospital that gave them the title of Hospitaliers. I saw to-day in the museum of the Governor's palace the original bill signed by Pope Paschal 1213 by which these charitable and chivalrous men were confirmed as a military order. These grand men were the most knightly Knights that ever wore a plume or unsheathed a sword. Alone for years they stood, under the banner of the cross, the awful onset of Saracens and Turk. They finally found a home in the island of Rhodes which they held for 200 years against the incessant assaults of the Turks, until one of the greatest of the Sultans with a vast fleet landed 200,000 soldiers, the dower of his army, and besieged the little group of 6,000 soldier priests. 160,000 Turks perished in the siege, one Knight alone having slain 600 Turks with his own valiant sword. At last the Sultan offering them most favorable terms to get them out of Rhodes, they sounded the retreat on a trumpet now laid away in a glass case in the palace of the Grand Masters of the order, where I inspected it two hours ago; and in the same museum I read the signature of Charles V to a deed dated 1530 granting Malta to the homeless Knights on condition that they should hold it against the Turks and Algerine pirates. The Turks and pirates combined in an attack against them with a force of 138 warships and 40,000 soldiers. Persistent and desperate assaults were repulsed repeatedly under the intrepid and venerable Grand Master, Lavalatte, who though 70 years old, was always in the thick of the fight. The Turks lost 25,000 men and retired forever from the island, leaving vast military stores and their dead leader in the hands of the Knights. The capital is named Valletta from the grand old Grand Master, who laid the foundation of the city 1566.

The pride and crowning glory of the city is the rich and magnificent church of St. John, surpassing in interest to me anything in Europe. The floor itself with its Mosaic memorial tables of 400 Knights, pictured with artistic symbols all replete with thrilling history and eloquent with chivalrous deeds, dazzles the memory and thrills the thought.

More of Malta I cannot write now without overloading this letter with facts and figures that crowd and jam one another for passage on this epistolary train. W. T. Tiss.

A Drinking Fountain.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. began planning for the erection of a fountain for the use of the members hindered for a time. Other enterprising cities have such fountains, and we should not be lacking in such humane enterprises. It is not only a convenience but a necessity. It should command itself to our business men to make provision for the comfort of those who come to trade and do business in our city, some have already given assurance of encouragement and financial support. Among them we are glad to mention the name of the late Capt. T. P. Martin, who in his life time promised a donation and made provision for it in his will. It is desired that this shall be in the true sense a popular enterprise by the people, and for the people. Let all have a part, men, women and children, and the dimes of the children may have a place as well as the dollars of men and women. It is hoped to make this fountain "a thing of beauty" and an ornament, as well as an act of charity; and it our desire that it shall be an lesson, teaching greater kindness to our uncomplaining friends, the dumb animals, and more consideration for their comfort. It is our purpose to press the enterprise in order that it may be completed before the coming of the heat and dust of summer. Let the good work be encouraged. Contributions will be gratefully received by any of the ladies named hereinafter: Mesdames H. D. Clark, T. F. Rogers, Charles Oldham, B. F. Thomas, or Geo. W. Baird.

New Orleans citizens have issued a statement that there is no foundation for the report that New Orleans is in danger from the Mississippi. It is asserted that his city has not been in any risk for twenty-five years.

The State has made the first purchase of State bonds in which the sale was confirmed. The price is 102½ and interest.

THE OLD RELIABLE

FACTS and OBSERVATIONS

At Frenchburg—Asked to become a Candidate for the Legislature.

SOME VIEWS ON TEMPERANCE.

Jno. have bought the Vineel Back farm; Lewis Back sold his farm to Dile Gullett and goes to the farm of Judge Osborn below town; John C. Day moves to the Big Woods; Garrett Lawson went there last week; Joe Ledford, of Red River, moves to Mrs. Robert Trimble's farm on Spencer.

W. H. Kash who has been at Fort Russell, Wyoming, for a year, left for San Francisco on March 20, enroute to the Philippines.

Sam Aymx, who has been in feeble health at Lexington for some months, died in that city on Tuesday March 24. He was a member of Beaver Lodge 505 F. and A. M. and was buried by the fraternity at the Willis graveyard Wednesday at 3 o'clock. His wife is a daughter of Mrs. Wm. Rothwell. She with two children survive him.

Born—Wednesday morning, March 23, 1903, to Jailer E. D. Hackney and wife, a daughter.

J. J. Dennis and family, of Menefee, who moved to Muskogee, I. T., four weeks ago are much dissatisfied and will at once go to Mo.

The I. O. O. F. lodge at Frenchburg on Tuesday night was preparing for a trip to Maytown. (See account of Organization in another column.) As we sat in their hall before the meeting was convened, we heard a chain rattle. Before we thought what would happen, that chain was around us. We did not think that we were among enemies or that the devil had us, but presumed that this is one of the mysteries of the order for initiates.

We telephoned an account of the organization of Menefee Deposit Bank for our last issue. The Cashier, Mr. H. L. Waliaice, is from Paintlick (not Paintsville) Ky. The institution expects to open for business about June 1st.

A. J. Ringo, paymaster for the Confederacy was in town on Wednesday with a roll of Confederate money. B. F. Day was the only veteran whom we saw receive his pay. We received a $10—not because we had bled and died, but probably as a sympathizer.

Joe C. Lykins of Wolfe, was in town on Wednesday.

John C. Wood was "whooping up the boys" in his race for Railroad Commissioner. After May 9th, we will know whether he or another will oppose a Democrat.

The lawyers from this city were B. F. Day and R. H. Winn.

Lon Hovermale represented the Commonwealth until the attorney, Wm. Young, came.

Sam Greenwade, Wm. Sledd, J. K. Bates, J. B. Greenwade, Jno. Roberts and others from this country were there.

Sam Greenwade sold for $250 the lot and two-story frame store (recently occupied by somebody) to the Menefee Deposit Bank.

Since our last visit Marion Powers has embarked in the grocery trade.

The Big Woods seems to be attracting attention of teamsters, etc., around McCausey.

H. R. French, Stamper Bros., and Mrs. Helwig attended the burial of Mr. Vreeland and were passengers to Mt. Sterling with Jno. C. Wood and the writer.

Capt. Beckham to Wed.

It is reported that Capt. Yulee Beckham, of Chicago, is to wed in a short time, Miss Wilcox, of Savannah, Ga. The bride elect is one of the South's most beautiful and accomplished daughters. Capt. Beckham is a son of Mrs. Julia Beckham, of Bardstown, and a brother of Gov. J. C. W. Beckham.

A Rockport family, after narrowly escaping from their burning home, found themselves cut off by high water and almost froze to death in their night clothes.

COMMENDABLE.

In another column in this issue is an article from the W. C. T. U. organization relative to adding to the fund provided by the late T. P. Martin for the purpose of putting in a public fountain where both man and beast may drink of pure water free of any charge. This step is commendable on the part of our good women and doubtless will meet with the encouragement from our business men it so richly deserves.

It will be an ornament, an advertisement of our liberality and our thoughtfulness. It may be there are many persons who would delight to give aid to this movement. Their attention is directed to the article.

STOP IT.

We would respectfully call the attention of the Mayor, Chief of Police and his deputies to the drunken, profane and vulgar toughs who congregate on Main street east of Walsh Bros. corner.

Gentlemen, how much longer must the respectable people who pass through that quarter submit to such?

If such assembly and conduct can not be broken up by admonition and warning, we suggest that more severe measures be adopted. It is an offense to modest and refined women and to gentlemen, is a disgrace to our town and a reflection upon the "powers that be" who are supposed to have jurisdiction over such matters. We give facts and some observations.

APPROPRIATE.

April 7th the Fiscal Courts of the State will be in session and the committee in charge for the raising of funds for a Kentucky Exhibit at the World's Fair are expecting liberal appropriations. It is to be hoped each county will do its duty and we feel it is unnecessary to say a word to our court along this line, for well do they know of the Kentucky resources in need of advertising and that this is the cheapest and best way to get before the eyes of capitalists. We have no fears concerning the action of the Montgomery Fiscal Court; they will authorize our part.

THANK YOU.

The editor of the ADVOCATE takes this method to thank Mr. Jones for the nice present of glasses. We have had our eyes examined by experts, have had prescriptions filled by those of the highest reputation, but none have done us better service than has Mr. John W. Jones, and why should they? His stock is equal to the best and his facilities for testing and fitting eyes are unsurpassed, and he is a graduate of the best schools the same as they are.

One patient was in Louisville where his eyes were tested and a prescription was given for glasses. The patient brought the prescription to Mr. Jones who gave him a perfect fit and saved him $4 on a purchase of $12.

Swift the Millionaire Packer Dead.

Gustavus Swift, aged 63, President of the Swift Packing Company, died at his home in Chicago on Sunday from internal hemorrhage resulting from an operation some days ago for bladder trouble. His death was unexpected by family and doctors. His fortune is estimated at $10,000,000 made in the meat packing and live stock trade. He located in Chicago in 1875.

His firm has branch houses in St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Omaha, St. Paul and Fort Worth, with distributing offices in many American cities and leading cities in Europe, Asia and Africa. In his plants are 22,607 employees.

On Thursday the writer went to Olive Hill. On the train were R. A. Chiles, of this city and J. W. Riley, of Morehead, going to Olive Hill in connection with the bankruptcy proceedings of the People's Cooperative Company under the management of U. S. G. Tabor.

Neither of these gentlemen gave us any information concerning the business, but so far as we heard in town, the impression is that the throwing of the company into bankruptcy was unnecessary and would be injurious to the firm.

For more than a week the two large fire brick plants had been practically at a stand still because of a strike. We were informed that about 400 persons are idle. Did not learn amount of weekly pay rate.

The contention appears to be over recognition of the Union. What the result will be, time will reveal. One thing is sure and that is that several hundred dollars in wages are being lost daily, and trade in the stores is light, and of course the plants are delayed in filling orders.

Considerable excitement had prevailed in the town for several days. On Friday, March 20, Mrs. L. C. Wilson, wife of the postmaster and merchant, who had been somewhat complaining suddenly grew worse—the symptoms indicating poison with arsenic. Suspicion rested on Mrs. Maria Ferguson who was boarding with the family, for it was learned that on a certain day she had purchased an arsenical preparation, and had administered it to the sick woman.

Mrs. Ferguson was arrested on Tuesday and was under guard at the hotel when we were there Friday. Awaiting the results of Mrs. Wilson's sickness the trial had been postponed. The condition of the sick woman was said to be serious.

We were informed that Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are both highly respected and that no improvidence is attributed to either which would give rise to this mysterious affair. We returned home on Saturday morning.

While gone we heard comments by Democrats concerning the Beckham eligibility, Court of Appeals decision, etc. A prominent Democrat voiced the sentiment that the decision was adverse to Gov. Beckham and that for the best interests of the party and the people the Governor should withdraw from the race. To this we agree.

For Sale.

T. K. Barnes offers his beautiful suburban home for sale privately. A rare opportunity is this for a fine investment. The house is a two story modern brick, spacious halls, well proportioned rooms, dry basements, gas and electric lights, water, bath rooms and ever needed conveniences. Beautiful shade trees, lawns, small and large fruit orchards, cow pasture, stables, carriage house. In short, this is one of the most desirable and complete pieces of property in the city. The plantation contains nine acres and is located on Maysville, one of our most popular streets. 24-tf

Vegetation.

During the past week all kinds of vegetation have made rapid growth; blue grass is especially noticeable, flowers are blooming, buds are swelling, some trees are green, and some fruit trees had begun to bloom last Saturday.

There was frost two mornings last week, with rain early on Monday.

Suffocated.

On Friday night at Winchester Dick Bush aged 59 years died from suffocation. His bedding caught fire from a lamp.

Another $30,000 for Lorenz.

Prof. Adolph Lorenz, who earned a fee of $30,000 by coming to Chicago from Vienna in October last and resetting the right leg of little Lillie Armour, will return here about April 15 to take off the plaster of paris cast, and release the long imprisoned limb.

The Armours await with impatience the return of the great surgeon, whose second trip to this continent within six months will cost another $30,000 fee—or more than $1,000 a day for the entire time of the voyage.

"In six months," said the learned professor, after he had performed the wonderful task that had upset all the theories of the surgery of the knife, "in six months the case may be taken off an the limb will be like that of any other healthy child."

The six months have nearly passed. Little Lillie has gained strength and spirits. The congenital cripple has become a lively little girl, awaiting only that final release from the cast of mall to become like other children of her age.

When, after two hours of wonderfully skillful manipulation, Prof. Lorenz put back into its socket the bone that had so long been out of place, doctors all over the world admitted that the learned man of science had made good his most daring theories, and the millionaire father of the child gladly paid one of the largest fees on record.

Every prediction of the professor as to the child's improvement has been fulfilled. Any skilled surgeon could now, if it is admitted, release from its plaster of paris prison the long fettered limb, but J. Ogden Armour, father of the little patient, will spare no expense to make the cure thorough.

If any further treatment is needed Dr. Lorenz, now practicing abroad, will be sent to him with Lillie Armour, and the cost will be paid.

As the child is now in better condition than $20,000. She is the granddaughter of Philip D. Armour. She spent the first months of her life in an incubator, and her childhood—she is not yet six years old—has been saddened by the affliction of hip disease, which has responded to no treatment but that of the great Vienna scientist.

Prof. Lorenz's last visit to this country was made memorable by the wonderful operations he performed gratis upon the children of the poor.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE

$36,500 Loss—Good Work
By Fire Department.

Water Pressure All That Could Be Wanted.

It was near 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning when a fire alarm was turned in. The company responded promptly to the call, finding the three story building of I. F. Tabb, South Maysville street, on fire. A tramp had seen a small light in the rear of the building growing into a large flame in a moment and gave the alarm. The cause of the fire is only a supposition. It is possible a cigar stub may have been dropped on the floor, a match may have been ignited by a rat or maybe a thoughtless boy dropped a cigarette, a match from the outside through a crack coming in contact with inflammable material. It is not thought to have been the work of an incendiary. The fine building known as the Commercial Club Building was soon a total loss, and corn, seed, hay, tobacco, bluegrass seed, flour, meal, etc., went up in smoke from the destroying element. Mr. Tabb's losses will aggregate about $20,000, with insurance in Hoffman agency amounting to $15,000. The Opera House walls are badly sprung and cracked and the architects are of the opinion that it will be necessary for the wall adjoining the Tabb building to come down. In this event the damage will reach near $1,000,000.

$2,500, and a small amount of tobacco. Leaf Tobacco Company sustained a loss of $1,500, with insurance amounting to $500. The fire loss aggregated $30,500, not including slight damage to the property of Charles Reis and Mrs. Sarah Hall. For a time with sparks going up from the burning building containing straw and hay the buildings around seemed doomed to the devouring flames, but the fire company fought valiantly, using as many as seven streams. It required wisdom and level heads to keep the flames confined within the walls of one building. They were equal to the emergency and have the congratulations of every just man. Again it was an opportunity to test the pressure of the water plant. The pressure was from the stand pipe all the while, and a pump at the plant was put to work to keep the water from lowering in the stand pipe. The manager of the water plant recognizing that the entire adjoining blocks were threatened, hurried a day engineer to the plant in order, if necessary, to set both of the great pumps to working. This was a fire where the management was absolutely correct and where the company had all the water and power needed. It can be said of Mt. Sterling that she has a water plant with few equals and as good a fire company, not constantly on guard, as there is in the State. The fine building of I. F. Tabb will be rebuilt at once. Opera House will be rebuilt, all losses adjusted and business made to him as herefore and that without break.

I would like to meet any persons who are contemplating a western trip this spring to discuss locations, routes, etc. By clubbing together we can secure better rates. Will be in Mt. Sterling April 4th.

Major General Hector McDonald, one of the most famous officers in the British army, committed suicide in a Paris hotel. He had been ordered before a court-martial in Ceylon to answer charges of immorality.

Headquarters of the State Democratic Executive Committee will be removed from this city to Frankfort this week.

In the Hustle. Sunday morning the business house and entire stock of I. F. Tabb's was a total loss from fire and the audience may well have been a business suspension for a while, but not so with Mr. Trubb, for by Monday morning he had the three-story building of T. K. Barnes & Sons rented and had landed one car load of business besides filling smaller orders not a few, and from the packing rooms the Kentucky Leaf Tobacco was activity.

How is Mt. Tabb? "I haven't time to mourn over the losses, they are heavy but greater than ever for pushing my business. I am bought opposite my old stand until my building has been reconstructed at former sight when I will move back. Mt. Sterling is my home, my place of business, and here I expect to be until I die. You might say to the people the business is running full and am buying whatever the farmer has to sell and supplying the trade with feed, seed, and coal just as before the fire."

COURT OF APPEALS

Declares That Gov. Beckham's Eligibility is Beyond the Committee.

That His Name Must go on the Ballot and That the Primary is Legal.

"Under the facts, as shown, we are of opinion the primary was lawfully called."

"It must be understood that the only question decided is that the committee has no right to raise the question as to the eligibility of one who desires to become a candidate before the primary, and for that reason refuse to place his name upon the ballot."

The above sentences contain the gist of the two opinions rendered Wednesday by the Court of Appeals.

Judge Hobson delivered the opinion in the Meacham primary case, and Judge Paynter in the case of Young vs. Beckham. The opinions in full follow:

OPINION IN ELIGIBILITY CASE.
Court of Appeals of Kentucky.
March 25, 1903.

Allie W. Young, etc. Appellants, vs. Appeal from Woodford Circuit Court.

J. C. W. Beckham, Appellee,
Opinion of the court by Judge
Paynter:

The purpose of this proceeding is to compel the Democratic Committee to place the name of the appellant, J. C. W. Beckham, on the ballot as a candidate for the office of Governor before the Democratic primary election called for May 9, 1903.

The question of his eligibility has been raised and the committee refuses to place his name upon the ballot. The question to be determined from the pleadings is whether the governing authority of the party have called a primary election, and, if so (a) whether the state authorizes the holding of a primary election to nominate candidates for State offices; (b), whether the committee can refuse to place his name upon the ballot, because they think it ineligible to re-election; (c), whether by proceedings in mandamus the committee may be compelled to place his name upon the ballot used at the primary as a candidate for Governor.

The first question is easily disposed of. It is aversed in the petition that the governing authority of the party has called a primary election and is not denied by the answer; therefore, the court must proceed upon the idea that the primary has been called by the governing authority of the party.

Sections 1550 and 1565, inclusive, of Article 12, Chapter 41, Kentucky Statutes, embrace the law upon the subject of primary elections.

Section 1550 reads as follows:

"A primary election, within the meaning of this article, and as used in this chapter, is an election held within the State, county, city, district or subdivision thereof, as the case may be, by the members of any political party, or by the voters of some political faith, for the purpose of nominating candidates for office."

Section 1565 reads as follows:

"The provisions of this article shall apply to all primary elections held for the purpose of nominating candidates for State, county, district or municipal offices hereafter held in this Commonwealth, except those held in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two."

From these sections it is manifest that the Legislature intended to provide for a primary election for the nomination of State offices.
Section 1565 expressly provides that the article shall apply to primary elections held for the purpose of nominating candidates for State, county, district or municipal officials.

A difficulty arises from the fact that the law is not definite and cer-

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Effectively Cured.

Heart disease is curable, but in people of advanced age it does not readily lend itself to ordinary treatment. There is, however, one remedy which has been known for centuries, which we know from watching hundreds of cases and from the letters of grateful patients, that it is a wonderful cure for weak and diseased heart, but it is a slow tonic, a regular course of treatment being required. The best way to get the benefit of this treatment is to consult with a physician who has had experience in the use of this medicine.

"The Civil War veteran, who has been stricken with heart trouble, will be greatly relieved by this treatment.
